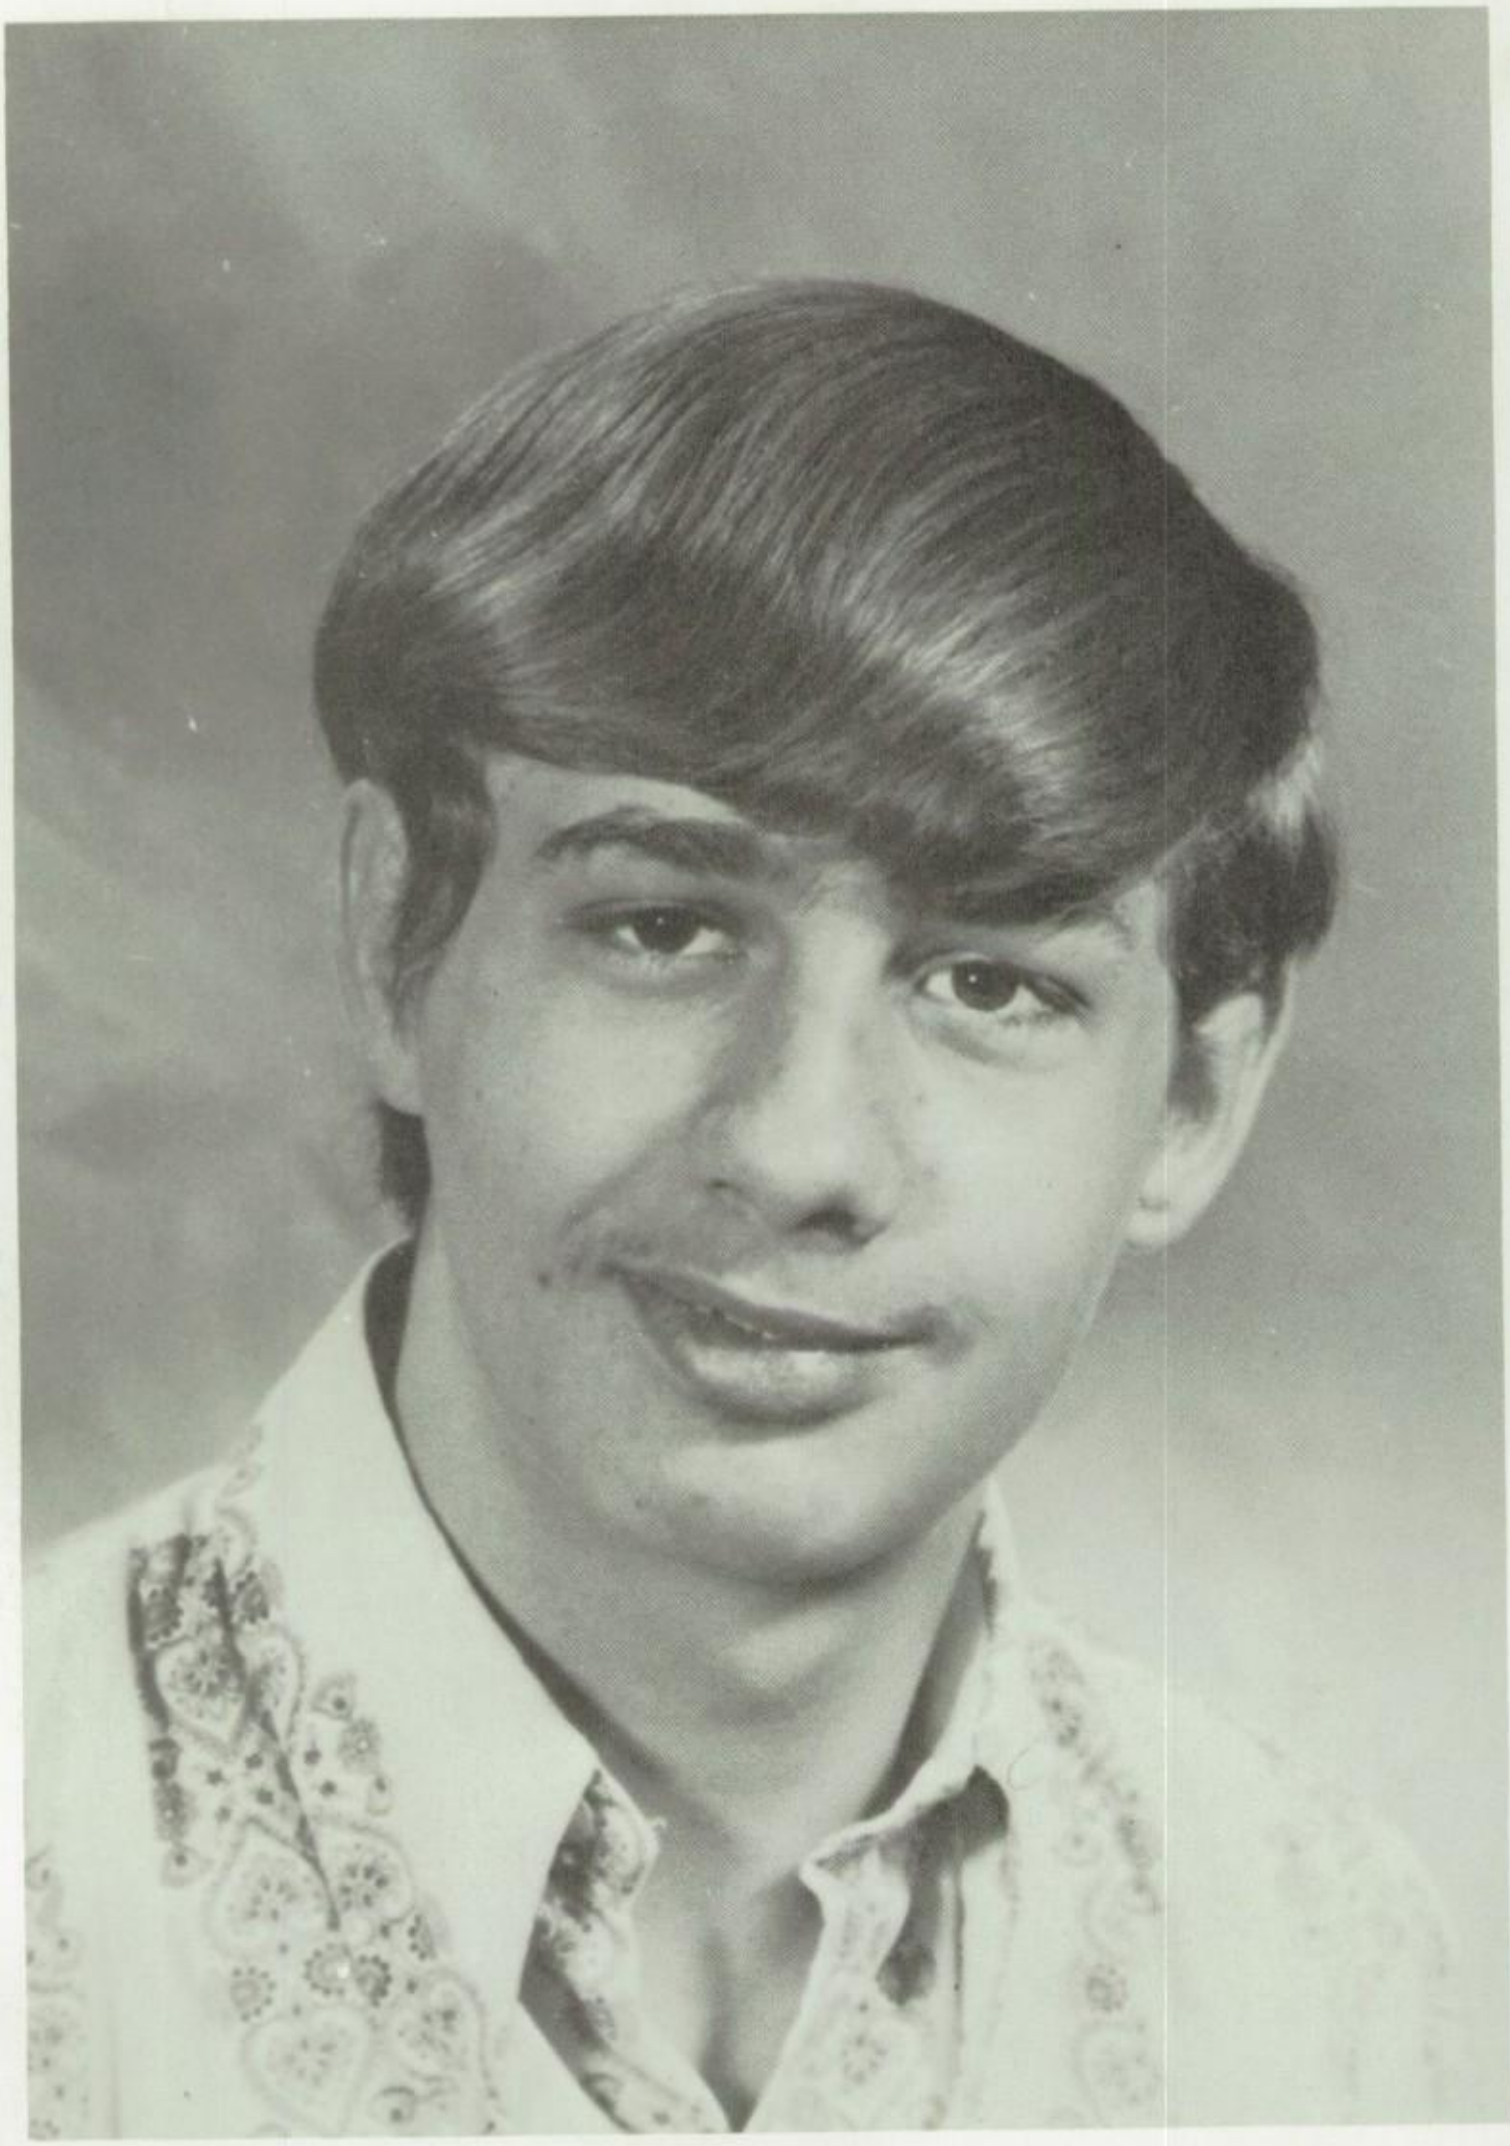
Sacket High School
Sackets Harbor, New York

ALMA MATER

Far above Ontario's water
With its waves of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view;
Lift the chorus; speed it onward
Raise it to the sky;
Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Hail Dear Sackets High.

Dedication



We, the Class of 1975, dedicate this edition of Niahoure in the memory of our classmate and friend, Eddie Bradberry

DONKEY BASKETBALL GAME

Several activities highlighted the 1974-75 school year.

The FHA, with their advisor, Miss Whitmore, held a party for the children from the Watertown ARC center.

The Tennis Club was formed this year, under the advisor, Mr. Cerow, and played several matches with neighboring schools.

The College Bound Club, advised by Mr. Eddy, highlighted their year with a trip to SUNY at Oswego.

A humorous event of this school year was the Faculty-Student Donkey Basketball game. (One or two of Mr. Moore's ribs were not too amused!)

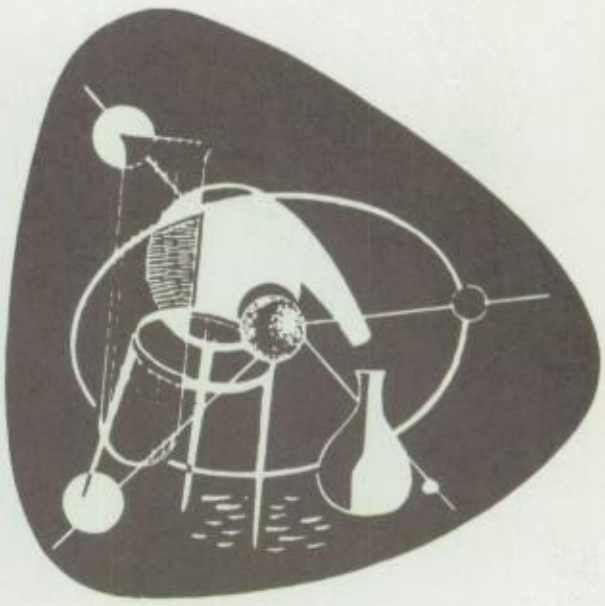
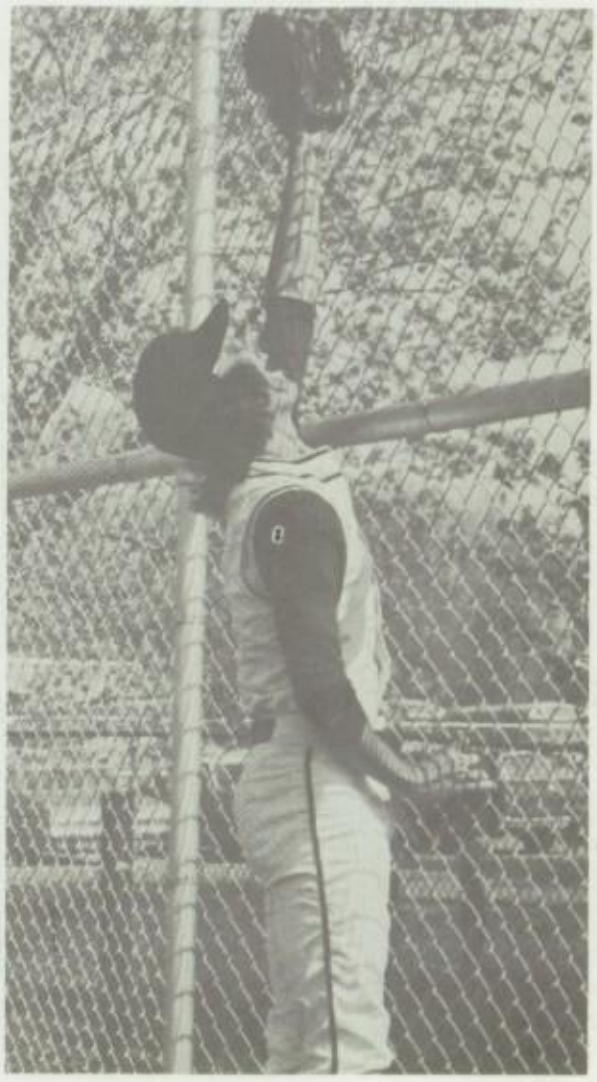
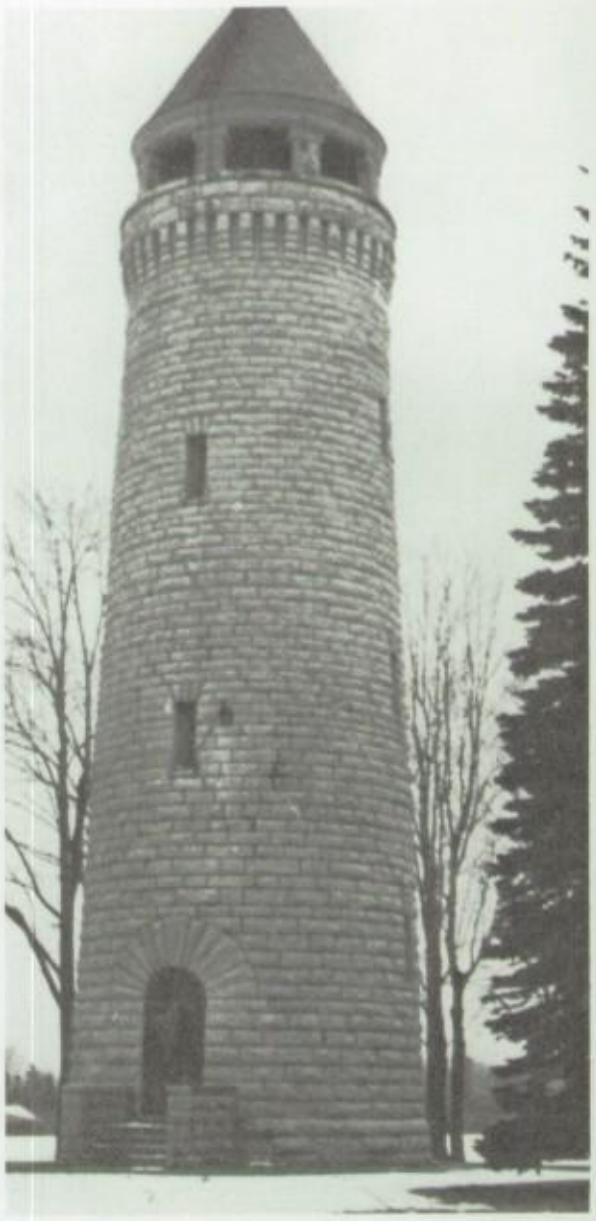
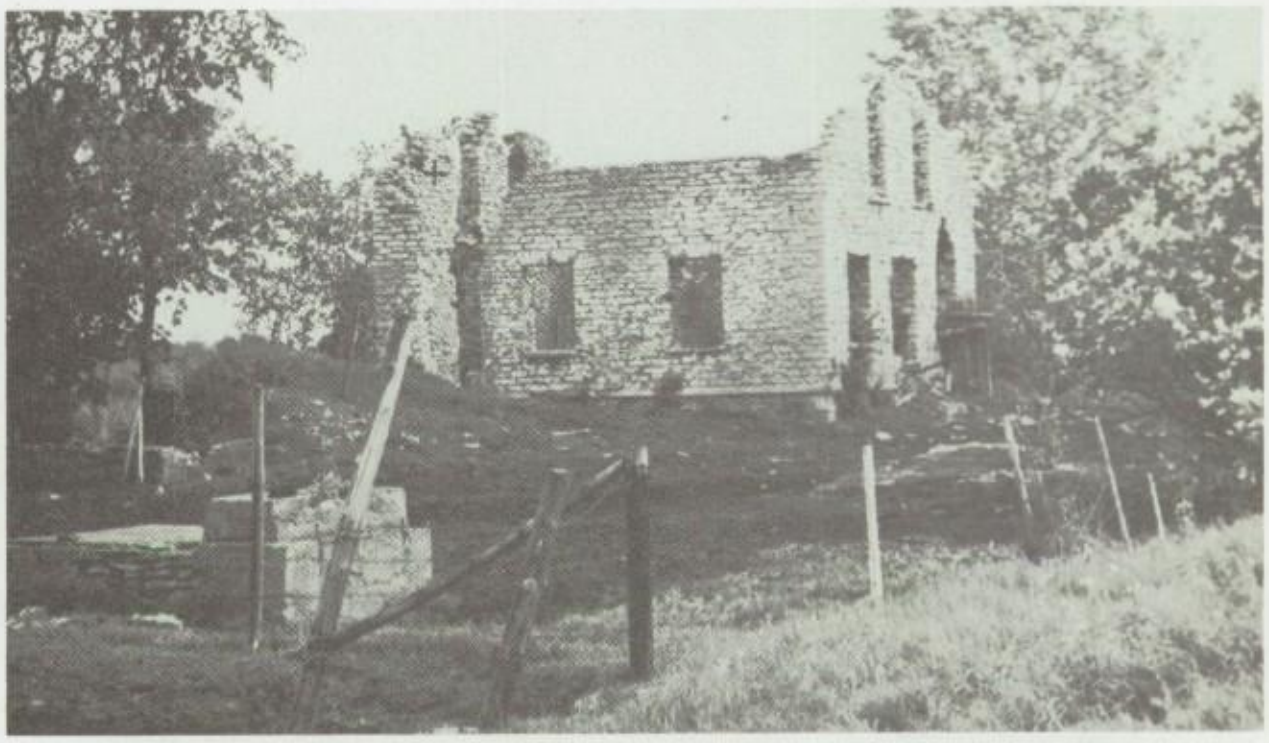
Not-So-Honorable Society







MEMORIES are something we all hold. In time we will leave Sackets. When we do, we have only to glance at these pages to remember a bit of our past.



We had a riot at the Ice Fishing Derbies. Maybe we will go to other places, but these pictures of well-known times and faces will fondly recall our MEMORIES.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Sara Algie, will retain all of my possessions, for I intend to outlive everyone.

I, Steve Blodgett, will my ability to play pool to Andy, Rob, and John.

I, Kathy Brett, will to any poor freak in this school my ability to come to school twice a week and still be on the honor list, and to Mr. Wildridge, my skip slips.

I, Denise Carpenter, will to the Baniscos, Fatherly advise forever, to Kath a short WAIT, to Linda, a sailboat at 5 a.m., and myself and August 24, 1979, to How.

I, Kathy Denny, will to Sara, my bush, to Andy, 20 years of ACTH, to Desi, twidlebush, to David a dead cow and a tunafish sub, and to Dar, a few pointers.

I, Randy Dumas, will to Ray Kelly a car that won't get stuck, to Mark, David Hirst's ID card, to John Pierce, a new pair of sneakers, and to Nan, a year's supply of turtlenecks.

I, Marilyn Doane, will to Cindy, a car, the ability to bowl to Linda, and to Gayle, a house of her own.

I, Bill Duprey, will my knowledge of KEE pins, Oldsmobiles, and Ramblers on the Road to Leo.

I, Cindy Fields, will my ability to be on time to my brother, to Marilyn, a full tank of gas, and my ability to drive to Harry.

I, Linda Harrington, will a party at Doc's to Marilyn, a season's pass to the Den to Cindy, and to Terry, a gigantic hot fudge sundae.

I, Nancy Handley, will to Vinice Lawrence, Bus 25 and all its headaches.

I, Kim Houghtaling, will to Linda and Sandy, my "Brief Oral French Review," to Cherie, a twinkie, and to Mom, six additional years of tolerancy.

I, Linda Howlett, will to Kim, a suede coat like mine, to Desi, a sailboat at 5 a.m., to Steve, a contract with Columbia Records, to Sandy, a little chest, and to Alan, some sideburns, a warbonnet, and me.

I, John Krake, will a dry distributor cap and a gallon of gas to Rob, a free pass to any movie to Andy, and a complete set of diving equipment to Leo.

I, Debbie LaFontaine, will to Herman Calvin Jordal Jr., the ability to stay sane while living with me, and the ability to stay away from bridges.

I, Cindy Lines, will a bunch of little Hirams to Sue Gould, and to Patti Haines, a basketball team all her own.

I, Janeen Loonan, will to Barbie, Carol, Julie, and Cindy, an exciting weekend on the corner.

I, Gordon Lunderman, will my ability to do nothing and succeed at it to everybody.

I, David Maxon, will to David Mayhew, one used guitar string, to Doc a log, to the Baniscos, one silver bullit, and to the school, developed humor.

I, David Mayhew, will to David, one free ride, to Kathy, a certain promise, and to the class of "75" one slightly eaten pair of shorts.

I, Timothy McIntyre, will my records, a bag of popcorn, a girl, and a case of beer to Gordy.

I, Thomas McIntyre, will to my girlfriend Laura, one whole day of sleep and relaxation.

I, Darlene McManaman, will to Mr. McCartney a lifetime supply of M & M's, to Cherie, "the band," to Kathy, a BZZZZT, to Dave, uneatable shorts, and to Bill, myself.

I, Marilyn Morehouse, will to my sister Laura an electric guitar, and to Marilyn Doane, some self-confidence.

I, Mark Neville, will a certain record by Elton John to Cindy Lines, and a decompressor to Pat.

I, Penny Kellar, will to Diana Lawrence, a one way trip to Virginia Beach, and a reminder to everyone that I was the first Kellar to graduate.

I, John Pierce, will to Pietroski one crow bar and a blue pick up truck, to Sugar, a smaller head, and to Pope, a life long principal and somebody to fight about it with.

I, David Pietroski, will to Randy Dumas, one I.D. card for medicinal purposes, to Viola Lawrence a lifetime supply of piano lessons, and to every kid in the class of "76", my golden hockey stick.

I, Betsy Smith, will to the Baniscos an automatic, to spook, a can of Afro Sheen, and to Geory a pair of sneakers.

I, Bruce Smith, will to Joe and Linda, a box of salt, a quiet bartender to Lurch, a telephone pole to Michael "T", and a pound of common sense to Byrd.

I, Cindy Spencer, will a plateful of ashes to Charles and Virginia Pennock.

I, Sandy Spencer, will a full time Mommy to Angel, all my love for Alan to combine with hers to Linda, and sales tax for 500 pennies to "Peach Fuzz."

I, Brian Spink, will some shortness to Foon, some Scuba gear to Horr so he can do it under water, and a bird call to Byrd Krake.

I, Steve Sullivan, will my duck call to David Duck, some skill at playing goalie to Rob, and a dark room without yellow walls to Andy.

I, Andy Wardwell, will to Rob, a waterproof truck, a duck and peace and quiet to Mrs. Huntley, and to G. W., a studio.

I, Mary Whalen, will to André, an accurate description of accuracy to be used at point Omega, and to Sarah, "eh."

I, Barbara Webb, will my locker to Mark Breuer, the teenagers in Sackets a new corner, and to the man who lives on the corner, some brains.

I, Ray Kelly, will to Randy Dumas, a car that the tires stay on.

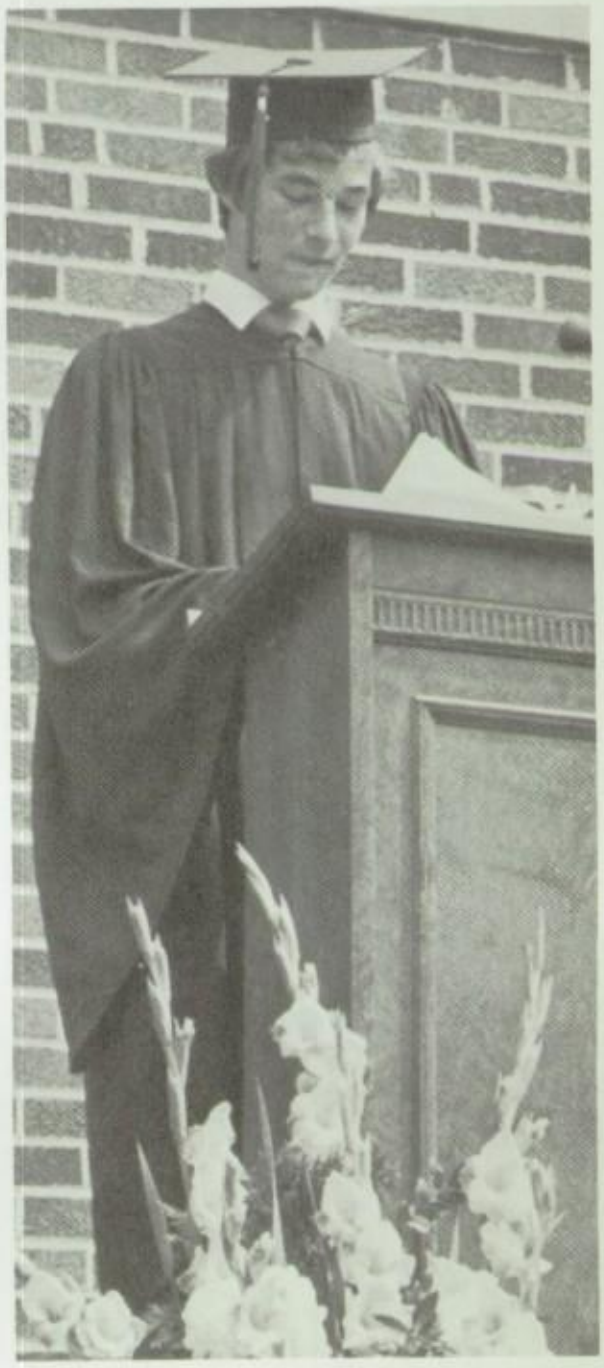
GRADUATION 1975



Probably no one will forget this graduation. Not a single person tripped — (the price wasn't high enough) — Andy said in his speech that we had been named 'Trouble' with a capital 'T,' but the teachers hotly denied it. And we won't forget it, because, oddly enough, we didn't mind the heat, the long, hot robes, or the funny hats. We were too proud to really care.

So this is it. The final day at Sackets High. We are now officially alumni. Some of us cried, some laughed, and some were silent. But we were all thinking along the same lines, and we all said FAREWELL.
